

Word Portrait of an Animal I Love
By Paige Collier

I have the cutest Yorkie puppy in the world. His name is Jack! Jack is six months old he will be seven months old on April 10th. He was me and my sisters big Christmas present. We went to look at Westies and we ended up with him. We make him pretty in pink. I saw him and I just fell in love. He is a stinker. He's not very big. Sunday night, March 30th, 2008 he broke off his collar and almost ran away all the way down the street. And the worst part is he was heading toward the busy street. I love my puppy Jack. If any thing happened to him I'd be crushed.
