Why Not Catch A Leprechaun

1,00

T.J.

I'm going to convince you not to catch a leprechaun. People think they are cute and they have a lot of gold. These are not good enough reasons to try to catch a leprechaun.

It is not fun to get hurt when you try to catch a leprechaun. If you try to catch a leprechaun you could hurt yourself by pinching you or while setting a trap. You can also get tired trying to run after a leprechaun.

Attempting to catch a leprechaun is a waste of your time. Have you ever seen a leprechaun? No one has. If someone would have caught a leprechaun, it would have been on

In conclusion, there are many safer, better uses of your time. Please don't try to catch a leprechaun.
